VOL. V. RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY EVENING, JULY 4, 1870. NO. 271

The Daily Sentinel.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

ONE OF THE LOST TRIBES.—M. Halevy, a very intelligent French traveler, has communicated to the French Geological Society an account of a visit to the Falashas, a tribe numbering about 250,000. Inhabiting a district in Abyssinia, which has long remained a terra incognita and a blank space on the maps. From the following customs, it is conjectured that they may be one of the lost tribes: They do not practice polygamy. They circumcise their male children on the seventh day. Their proper name are derived from Hebrew, Fhez and Amharic. The institution of purification is practiced, the children are taught the Bible, the psalms, prayers, and sacred history. In the synagogues the sexes sit apart. Incense is burned during the services. Their religious hopes are turned to Jerusalem, but their ideas of the Messiah are very indistinct. They are wholly unacquainted with Hebrew, and know nothing of the ceremonies instituted after the time of Ezra. They have a religious literature, written in the style of Midrath. They keep the Sabbath rigidly; fast on Mondays and Thursdays; keep the 9th of the month Ab, to commemorate the destruction of Jerusalem. They wash before, and say grace after eating. They have a traditional mode of slaughtering animals for food. They practice commemorative sacrifice on the holy days, and also for the repose of the souls of the dead. Their women enjoy equality with men. They hold slaves, but liberate them after a service of six years.

REVISION OF THE BIBLE.—Mr. Buxton lately made a motion in Parliament that an address be presented to the Queen praying her to invite the President of the United States to concur with her Majesty in appointing commissioners to revise the authorized version of the Bible. Mr. Buxton in his remarks expressed the opinion that the work of revision should be of an international character, and that the assistance of scholars in Europe and in the United States should be obtained, and that for the translation of the Old Testament the aid of the Jewish scholars who are the greatest living masters of the Hebrew language, should be invited. It ought to have been known by Mr. Buxton, without being reminded by Mr. Gladstone, that the invitation suggested to the President would carry him into a sphere from which he is excluded almost by the very letter, certainly by the spirit, of the United States Constitution. Perhaps, however, Mr. Buxton inferred from the President's late hospitable invitation to the Evangelical Alliance, that he would feel himself at liberty to take the revision of the Bible in hand if his services were desired in that direction.

THE FOOLS.—Northern workingmen are beginning to find out that they made fools and slaves of themselves in fighting against the South. A committee of the "Labor Assembly of Cincinnati and vicinity" says:

"Unless the Government shall sooner commence the work of redressing the wrongs of labor it will prove to have been unworthy of the first drop of that river of blood which five hundred thousand workingmen poured out in defence of the old flag. To take our blood, to take our lands, to tax us so enormously to pay the cost of the war which the monopolists produced, and then to import Chinamen to work in our stead and drive our families into distress, constitute such an accumulation of wrongs as would justify revolution had we not the ballot for redress of grievances.

"Let the working classes rise in their own defence. Trust neither of the parties, but support your own platform of principles that will go to the bottom of oppression, and call out such men for office as are friends of justice."

Lately they were all Republicans.

Two men claiming to be taking the census, and representing themselves as United States officers, obtained lately from a German farmer in Rome, Wisconsin, a description of his farm, filled up a blank mortgage, and asked him to sign the instrument. At first he refused; but upon being told by them that such was the law, consented. At the time he did not understand that he had been duped, but upon consulting his neighbors came to that conclusion, and started in pursuit of the rascals. One of them was arrested, but the other escaped.

"If my wife is up when I go home," said a drunken husband, "I will beat her What right has she to set up? If she is not up I will beat her. What right had she to go to bed?" This is the policy of the Radicals in relation to the removal of disabilities. If the Southern people do not petition for a removal of their chains, they will be allowed to remain riveted.—Why don't they petition? If they do petition, the disabilities will be suffered to continue. What right have rebels to petition?—Pittsburg Post.

DICKENS' HOUSE.—An American, says the cable, has offered one hundred thousand dollars for the house in which Charles Dickens died.—The New York Express says: "We trust that, if permitted to buy it, he will be compelled to stipulate that he will not turn it into a place of exhibition for money." See what a character Americans have at home, and how each one in the general greed for money, suspects the motives of his fellow.

A western obituary closes by saying. "She had an amiable temper, and was uncommonly fond of ice cream and other delicacies."

So plentiful are the grasshoppers in Salt Lake City that the stench arising from the accumulation of their dead carcasses is terrible, and is very seriously affecting the health of the city.

The subscription lists to the monument to be erected to Voltaire, in France, have been signed by 205,000 persons.

Red Bear, the Indian warrior, says he thinks the white squaws are very handsome but they have on too much war paint.

The Connecticut river has now a large number of breeding boxes anchored in the river, containing millions of young shad and shad eggs in all stages of development.

Mr. Aumbert, the Swiss minister at Yeddo, Japan, says that every woman throughout the empire is able to read, write and cipher. If this is depotism, give us more of it!

SWEET QUININE

Replaces the use of the BITTER SULPHATE QUININE with which all are familiar.

Great, Positive, and Unfailing

CURE

For all Diseases of Malarious Origin.

Fever and Ague,

Intermittent Fever,

Chill Fever,

Remittent Fever,

Bilious Fever,

and the long train of disorders following if one when neglected.

SWEET QUININE

is made solely from Peruvian Bark (as is Bitter Quinine), therefore is of Vegetable origin, and not a Mineral poison, but on the contrary is proved to be one of the elements found in the blood of all healthy persons.

SWEET QUININE

acts as an antidote to, as well as a cure for, malarial or miasmatic poison, the absorption of which by the lungs causes Intermittent Fevers, etc. The only advantage claimed for over the use of old Bitter Quinine is the entire absence of that intense, persistent bitterness, which in the latter is an insurmountable obstacle to its use with most persons, and always with children.

SWEET QUININE

is in two forms—in POWDER, for the use of Physicians and Druggists, and FLUID, for use in the family and for the general public.

MURDER OF BECKET AND STEPHENS.

Henry the Second and Holden the First, raised each his obscure man to eminence and distinction.

Becket was Archbishop of Canterbury, and was at first dutiful and obedient to the King. Becket became arrogant and broke with the King. Four suspended and excommunicated prelates came to Baleux, where the King resided, and complained of the arrogance of Becket. The Archbishop of York remarked to the King that so long as Becket lived, he could never expect to enjoy peace or tranquility. The King excited, declared it was a want of zeal on the part of his servants that had kept him so long exposed to the enterprises of the ungrateful Becket. We are told that immediately four gentlemen of his household, viz: Reginald Fitz Urse, William de Tracie, Hugh de Moreville and Richard Brito, took these expressions of the King to be a hint for the death of Becket. The four set out for Canterbury, they found Becket at St. Benedict's Church, before the altar to hear vespers. In the Church and before the altar they cleaved his head with many blows and retired unmolested.

Holden I, elevated Stephens to a judicial seat, he was also Senator from Caswell. Stephens was at first obedient to Holden in all things, as Becket was to Henry. An ignorant negro member of the Carswell league complained to Holden, once Grand President of the league, that Stephens was "ruining the party." The Grand President said, "we must get clear of Stephens." The ignorant leaguer reported this in Carswell. About the hour of four, on Saturday, the 21st day of May, when the Court House was filled with men, Stephens was seen standing with a negro at the door of the room of the Clerk and Master in Equity. The next morning the dead body of Stephens was found in the room of the Clerk and Master. Angry rulers should be more guarded in their speech. We have no idea that Henry or Holden intended harm to Becket or Stephens.

The Hillsboro' Recorder, whose editor has been upon the spot to investigate the Stephens murder, is not satisfied that it was the work of Ku Klux. The Governor is of a different opinion and so are we.—We can't think that the negroes murdered Stephens because of any speech from the Governor. But rulers and great men should be careful how they talk.

Mr. L. H. Bowden, who resides in Wilmington, fell from his bed on Friday morning and dislocated his collar bone.

The commencement ball, given by the cadets of the Cape Fear Academy, at the City Hall in Wilmington, last Friday evening, was a brilliant affair.

FOURTH OF JULY.

The golden spoken Webster made John Adams say, "We shall make this a glorious day. When we are in our graves, our children will honor it. They will celebrate it with thanksgiving; with festivity; with bonfires and illuminations. On its annual return they will shed tears—copious gushing tears, not of subjection and slavery; not of agony and distress; but of exultation, of gratitude, and of joy."

The Fourth is here, the tears are here, too; some are of exultation, some of agony and distress.

What the South once was, should call up tears of exultation and joy; what she is now must call up tears of agony and distress.

If the South will not be mercenary; if she will be true to herself; true to the Constitution; true to her plighted faith; true to the people, she will, ere long, be restored to her long lost constitutional rights and privileges.

We know the uncertainty of political issues and affairs. Through the thick darkness of the accursed leagues, we see beyond, the bright days of the restoration of constitutional rights.

The people, from the highest to the lowest, Governors, Judges, Senators, Postmasters and Constables, all may be proscribed, all punished, all made the subjects of the political and personal vengeance of Holden, Pool, Rodman, Cantwell, Barringer, Dick and the Radical signers of the ordinance of secession.

But, notwithstanding all this, there is a brighter and more hopeful future; many, many, hearty, anniversaries of independence and the enjoyment of constitutional rights yet to be attained.

We may, as a people, have to hang our harps upon the willows for the present, but the time will come when we can take them down and again sing "the sweet songs of Zion;" again send forth the anthems of freedom from hearts untrammeled, and celebrate our national anniversaries without the heel of the oppressor on our necks.

There is no oppression worse; there is no injustice grosser, than that felt by a people seeking redress of grievances and a restoration of civil privileges through a Governor like Holden, guided alone by selfish motives and acting only upon the dictates of a malignant mind; or through a Judge, who like Rodman, ordered union men to be shot by the score, like dogs.

But let the hundred thousand freemen of North Carolina, who have too much pride and too much conscience to see a mockery in regard to celebrating an event the fruits of which are denied them by political tricksters and mountebanks, still cherish the glorious memories of the past, which the recurrence of the day calls up; and extract from those memories an inspiration of hope that the glorious past will be revived again, and that the time will arrive when the dawn of this day may be hailed by a concert of free voices, joining in the grand chorus "Independence now! Independence forever!"

PATRIOTIC POETRY FOR 4TH OF JULY.

The Governor having once exhorted the soldiers to "trust in God and Jeff Davis," and again having said Jeff Davis & Co., should be hung, and now having repeated of that, and insured his life in Mr. Davis' Company, it may be he would like to re-read, on this 4th July, his ode to the immortal Calhoun:

JOHN C. CALHOUN.

BY W. W. HOLDEN,
"Editor of the Standard."

The voyager on the Southern main
Walks with rapt awe the hallowed sign
Which nightly flames "beyond the line."
Nor deems he labor all in vain
Which brings him to the long sought shrine.

The warrior's tribes, in field, by flood,
Walk in its light when the day is gone;
And hail it in its light abode
Best reflex of the absent sun:
In all their devious wanderings
From dewy eve through midnight's reign,
It guides them till the morning's wings shed sunlight o'er the earth again.

What if that cross its front should veil
And, darkling, sink in night's embrace?
No other stars nor sun could fill
Or share its wondrous dwelling place.

Star of the South! 'twas thine with thee!
To thee all eyes and hearts were turned,
As round thy path from plain to sea
The glory of thy greatness burned.

Millions were drawn to thee, and bound
By mind's high mastery; millions hailed
In thee a common sire, nor found
A ray in thee that waned or failed.

Fix'd as the sun which hangs in Heaven,
Firm as the earth it shines upon;
Pure as the snow by light winds driven
Wert thou, Columbia's honored son!

No night's embrace for thee nor pall
But such a mortal change has wrought;
THOU LIVEST STILL in mind—in all
That breathes, or speaks, or lives in thought.

Star of the South! thy beams are here—
HERE IN THAT HEART that weeps thy loss,
Though hidden, thou art still a sphere
Serene, refined from earthly dross,
Eternal, and intensely clear.
RALEIGH, April 6, 1850.

When the Governor wrote this, we think, from his habit, he had about six juleps in him and we think he said,

"How mournfully sweet
Are the echos which start,
When memory beats
That old tune on the heart."

If Gen. Clingman and Col. Mark Erwin read this ode last fourth of July, they said "oh the wretch."

AN UGLY DAY.—This has been an ugly day for celebrating the 4th. About ten o'clock the rain came down copiously, and threw a damper over the prospects of the lemonade venders. The cool shower and the consequent mud, so moderated the temperature of the atmosphere as to operate disastrously on the prospects of many who had invested in lemons and sugar on speculation. Those who depended on early sales for replenishing their stocks did not feel the crisis so heavy, but we fear that many who laid in large stocks were forced to "go by the board."

The regular monthly meeting of Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, will be held to-morrow, Tuesday evening, July 5th at 8 o'clock, at Fireman's Hall. Every member is requested to be present.

For the Sentinel.

EDITOR SENTINEL—DEAR SIR: The Raleigh Standard, through the Governor and Lt. Governor, and the crazy wretch (though non resistant) Ramsoure, have vented their spleen against Catawba county, and have stretched their imagination to the utmost, to find some pretext for political capital. If there was the smallest particle of honesty, or any regard whatever for truth in the Governor and Lt. Governor, they would correct the false and malicious charges they have preferred against this county. The Lt. Governor suddenly becomes convulsed with horror, at the barbarous and bloody treatment "poor Ramsoure has received at the hands of some inhuman and incarnate fiends in human shape;" says that Ramsoure was "whipped from his shoulders to his hips, and must have received between 75 and 100 lashes." Ramsoure, himself, Mr. Coulter (who saw Ramsoure's back the next day,) and Ramsoure's son, David, all swear that he received between 25 and 35 lashes; not more than 40. The Lt. Governor also says that Ramsoure's back was gashed and lacerated in a barbarous and bloody manner, and that his shirt was besmeared with blood. Mr. Coulter saw his back the next morning and saw the shirt that Ramsoure had on at the time he was whipped, and he swears that there was no gashes or cuts on Ramsoure's back, that his back was a little marked, and that there were a few specks of blood on his shirt.—Mr. Coulter is a magistrate, he is also a gentleman and a man of truth, and his statement is indisputable. The Lt. Governor also states that Ramsoure did not apply for a warrant from the officers in Catawba county because he believed they all were connected, in some way, with the Ku Klux, and that they would not give him a warrant. Mr. Coulter swears that Ramsoure did apply for a warrant. That he came to his house for that purpose, and that he told Ramsoure it would be necessary for him to designate some person, that he could not issue a warrant against the township. Ramsoure replied that he thought he could swear to one man's voice, and thought that he recognized another voice, and then asked what would be the result, if he did get a warrant. Mr. Coulter informed him that the parties would be bound over to Court if the evidence would justify it. Ramsoure then remarked, that would be no protection to him, and that he believed he would be a beggar and leave the country. That Mr. Coulter has stated the truth no one, for a moment, can doubt, and that Mars Todd was too much excited over the luxury of such a treat that he could not tell the truth, or that he designedly published a libel upon the officers of the law in Catawba county, than whom there is not a more active and honest set of men in North Carolina. Take all the facts in this case and there is but little doubt that Ramsoure was whipped either by his own party, for political purposes, or that political considerations were in no wise connected with the matter.

The fact of Ramsoure's being a Red string Radical or what not, had nothing to do with his whipping. As a Radical and a negro worshipper his course for the past six months has been more moderate than at any time in the last five years, in fact there has been strong indications of returning sanity about his mind. The depth of degredation to which he has descended on the negro question is extremely mortifying to his family and connections, of whom there is a large number in this county. It is correctly reported that the negro Rob, (whipped at the same time that Ramsoure was reported to have been whipped) has been exercising improper familiarity with Ramsoure's daughter, heretofore a highly respected young lady. Ramsoure's son David, stated under oath that Rob told him that the men who whipped him said that they were whipping him because of that fact. If this be true, and there is but little room for doubt, there can be no doubt that Ramsoure is the cause of his own daughter's disgrace and infamy, and a stain upon one of the best families in the county. Ramsoure has on various occasions declared and in such a manner as to make himself extremely obnoxious, that he preferred his daughter marrying a negro to a white man.

If Ramsoure was whipped by any one except his own brother leaguers, those who whipped him were actuated by motives of no political character. His course has been intensely Radical and obnoxious to every sentiment of virtue and decency, and long before this would he have received a severer penalty for his sins if political considerations could have prompted this act of lawlessness. He says himself that after they were through whipping him he told them that he deserved every lick that he had received, and that he would not call on God to protect him because he knew that he had sinned. Was he not whipped at his own instigation and by his own friends? The probabilities are stronger that such was the case than otherwise, and that the whole thing was preconcerted between the two Governors and Ramsoure, or that Ramsoure was working for the 500 dollars reward offered through the Standard for the detection of a Ku Klux. A short time before Ramsoure was whipped (a few days) without the knowledge of any one, "all at once" he starts for Raleigh, he reaches that place, has an interview with the Governor, (so he says himself) and returns home. No body knew what his business was, (and only surmise now from what followed immediately upon his return.) He was visited by a band of disguised men and whipped, the next morning he goes to a public gathering, shows his back, abuses the officers of the law for not taking up somebody, goes back home and remains through the night, and the next morning goes to Mr. Coulter's, talked an hour or two about a warrant, then goes off saying that he believes he will be a beggar and leave the country—goes direct to Newton, reaches the depot just as the Raleigh train leaves, appears very much distressed, and as the last resort, he returns to the depot again and takes the Morganton train. The rest is told. He flies to the bosom of Mars. Todd and "the horrible, horrible, horrible, poor persecuted, outraged Ramsoure, driven from his home and his family with hell hounds, monsters, fiends and Ku Klux at his heels. The next thing is a proclamation of war and threats of assassination, following Mars Todd's eloquent speech on Ramsoure's suff rings and his base libel upon the officers of the law in Catawba county. A bench warrant is issued, the supposed parties arrested, carried before Judge Mitchell, tried, and not one particle of evidence against them, are discharged.—Ramsoure then swears that he is afraid of these parties because he had been whipped by one of them six or eight months ago.—He also stated that he was prosecuting him in a civil action, as well as by indictment for the same, and strange to say the Judge bound one of them over to the peace, and immediately Ramsoure picks up a blind preacher and starts for the Northern States, not even returning to his home. David Ramsoure swore that there was two negroes in the crowd that whipped his father, also stated that the moon was shining, that he could not tell who any of them were, that there were between thirty or forty of them but only saw four or five horses tracks, that Bob was only struck a few licks that they told him somebody had lied on him and they would not whip him any more; this negro Bob has the character of a notorious scoundrel in his neighborhood, and has been intimately associated with Ramsoure for one or two years. He is not old enough to vote neither is he old enough to belong to the League according to his statement. Ramsoure himself stated on oath that he had withdrawn from the League sometime ago. From these facts the deduction naturally follows:

1st. That Ramsoure was whipped and received between twenty-five and thirty five lashes—this being true as established.—Mars. Todd has slightly prevaricated, and here we might stop and apply the maxim falsum in uno falsum in omnibus—but we will follow the deductions.

2nd. That Ramsoure's shirt was not besmeared with blood, and that his back was not cut or gashed from the shoulders to the hips.

3rd. That the whipping he received was not a political persecution, and that the men who whipped him were not actuated by political motives, or whipped him with a view of stifling the expression of his political sentiments.

4th. That Ramsoure himself was the instigator of his own punishment, and caused himself to be whipped by his own party for the advancement of private and political ends.

5th. That both the Governor and Lieut. Governor knew that Ramsoure would be whipped in the manner indicated, and that his whipping, as was the murder of Stephens, to be used as a pretext for calling into service such infamous villains and cut throats as Kirk and his militia, for the villainous purposes of advancing his political ends, in the August election.

6th. That Ramsoure did apply for a warrant and that he was instructed by Holden to apply in such a way, that he could decline taking it and thus enable him to publish a libel upon the officers of the law in the county.

No man deprecates lawlessness more than your correspondent, and no people is North Carolina are freer from such charges than are the people in Catawba county. Though morals in some parts of the county are very loose and no doubt there has been some disposition on the part of the people to correct this appaling evil; this we admit is wrong, but does it justify the charges of lawlessness and violence, and merit the imputation of corruption on the part of our officers? Excuse me for thus prolonging this letter.

Yours &c.,
ALEX.

For the Sentinel.

The Conservative delegations from Catawba, Gaston and Lincoln counties, met in convention at Lincolnton, on the 25th of June, for the purpose of making a nomination for the 37th Senatorial district.

After the convention was organized by calling Daniel Finger, Esq., to the chair, and requesting Maj. E. Eason, to act as secretary, D. Schenck, Esq., stated that as his disabilities had not been removed, he withdrew his name from the canvass and nominated Dr. Eli Crowell, J. A. Caldwell, Esq., then in a short speech recommended and nominated Maj. W. A. Graham.

It has been determined by the vote of the convention that each county should be entitled to and represented by one vote, the various delegations of the several counties retired to consult and elect between the candidates before the convention, and after deliberation they reported that Dr. Eli Crowell was their choice; whereupon on motion of J. A. Caldwell, Esq., the nomination was declared unanimous by the convention.

A committee consisting of D. Schenck, Esq., Col. H. Forney, and John Lewis, Esq., was appointed to wait upon and request Dr. Crowell to accept the nomination; and after a short absence the committee reported through Mr. Schenck, Dr. Crowell's full acceptance, who was immediately introduced to the convention and accepted the nomination in a few remarks.

On motion, a committee of three was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the convention.

The chair appointed Messrs. Johnson, of Gaston, Caldwell, of Lincoln and Hussey, of Catawba, who reported the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, 1st That we endorse the principles of the Address of the Conservative members of the Legislature, and that we recognize in it a just and liberal platform on which every citizen can unite.

2nd. That we disapprove of all lawless conduct and violence by whomsoever committed; and that it is the duty of every good citizen to discountenance such acts.

3rd. That the Reconstruction acts having been declared constitutional by the Supreme Court of the United States, we accept that as a final settlement of the questions therein involved; and that we are opposed to the disturbance of said acts either by the general or State government.

4th. That we are in favor of retrenchment and reform, and are opposed to high taxes, exorbitant salaries and extravagant per diem.

5th. That the Raleigh SENTINEL, Charlotte Democrat, Observer and Southern Home, be requested to publish the proceedings of this Convention.

LINCOLN COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Conservative delegates from the various townships in Lincoln County met in Lincolnton on the 25th of June, for the purpose of making nominations for the August election.

After various ballottings the following gentlemen were declared to be the choice of the delegates:

For House of Representatives—J. R. Self.
For Sheriff—D. A. Coon.

The following resolutions were reported by a committee and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, 1st. That great injustice has been done to this county by the Governor of the State, who has solemnly proclaimed that two most heinous and revolting rapes have been committed within its limits, when in fact no such crimes have occurred; and further that it is the duty of the Governor on being thus publicly informed of his mistake to correct the same under his own hand.

2nd. That the Raleigh SENTINEL, Charlotte Democrat, Observer and Southern Home be requested to publish the proceedings of this Convention.

On motion the convention adjourned.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company to America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all th ir really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to lay and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

Sep Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies in this State, who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the EXCELSIOR forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

ATTENTION!
CONSERVATIVE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES!

All the Conservative Democratic candidates nominated at the late Wake county Conservative Democratic Convention, are respectfully requested to meet in this city on Friday, the 8th inst. at 12 o'clock M., to make arrangements for the campaign and for consultation. Report at the Sentinel office on arrival.

Don't forget the auction of beds, bedsteads, table ware and other furniture at the Yarborough House to-morrow.

Installation.—The members elect of Oak City Council, Friends of Temperance, will be installed to-morrow evening, 8½ o'clock, at their Hall. The doors will be open to the public, especially those friendly to the order.

No telegrams to-day on account of the holiday.

The Celebration here To-day.—We don't think the celebration to-day came up to the expectation, or rather, the desire, of those engaged in getting it up. There were a very large number of colored persons in the city, from the surrounding country and by Railroad, but a few of them only seemed to care for the exercises laid down in the programme.

The procession, headed by the Raleigh Brass Band, and commanded by the marshals, J. W. Holden, Esq., Chief, Henry Hunter, Esq., Ed. Lane, Esq., Maj. W. H. Martin, Ed. Lane, Jr. Esq., C. M. Farriss, Esq., Ed. Bryan, Esq., and some others, whose names we forget, marched up Fayetteville street on the way to Rayner's grove. Without designing any disparagement to any others of the corps of Marshals, we thought Henry Hunter and Ed. Lane, Esqs., were the two best looking and most dignified men that were in the procession.

The procession itself consisted of 24 of the Raleigh colored fire company; 60 men and boys in citizens dress; 28 of some country League in blue and striped shirts, 68 more in various shirts, and sans serk, and the rear brought up by twenty very small boys. A majority of the whole of the procession consisted of youths too young to vote. The above numbers are accurate, by actual count.

The flag over the Capitol, and also the one carried in the procession, swung out to the breeze Union down. We don't know why this was done.

The crowd at the stand was passable for numbers, and we noticed on the platform, Watson, member of the city council, Dr. Ellis, J. T. Ball, Theodore Josephs, Mr. Kilmer, Judge Olds, Orator Ashley, Wm. Richardson, Bunc. Swain, A. H. Dowell, Policeman Doyle, J. W. Holden and C. M. Farriss; all modertely sober, some of them entirely so.

But we must be excused for cutting the matter short by simply saying that Pilgrim Ashley made an oration, which we did not stay to hear through, and was, no doubt, followed by others, but we don't suppose the world will suffer much for want of a report of them.

We forgot to mention that, while the rain was coming down in the forenoon, and before the procession started out, some piously disposed celebratists took possession of the Court House and held a sort of preliminary prayer meeting, interspersed with Old Hundred and Mear, and a few other religious "chunes."

As we close this notice to go to press, the crowd is gradually dispersing and those from the country going off in squads. We have heard of no disturbance of any kind.

Hard on Dick.—Passing a city pump to-day we saw two colored men good naturedly striving as to who should drink first. Says one, "git 'way and lemme drink, nigger; you know you aint got no soul, no how." "You go to ——, I know whar you got dat from; you got dat from Dick Badger." We rotated and left them discussing the question.

Another Cotton Bloom.—From the farm of Mr. John W. Avers, near Smithfield, Johnston county, we have received a cotton bloom gathered on Saturday, 2nd inst. An accompanying note states the cotton crop in that vicinity is generally backward.

Still Another.—From the farm of Mr. D. H. Williams of Wake, eight miles south of Raleigh, we have a bloom which opened yesterday, the 3rd. Mr. Williams considers that he is entitled to come in among the first, as he raised his without guano.

Still Another.—We have a bloom from Maj. Saunders' farm on Crabtree, gathered to-day. A bloom on the fourth of July is not easily beaten, or at least, that used to be the opinion of farmers, before guano became fashionable. After to-day blooms will be no rarity.

There will be a regular meeting of Rescue Steam Fire Engine Company, at Prompert's saloon, on Tuesday evening, July 5th, at 8½ o'clock, a full attendance of the members is desired, as business of importance will be transacted.

Committal of Stinson.—The negro, Wm. Stinson, charged with committing a brutal outrage on a white lady, sixty five years old, robbing her and setting fire to her house, on Tuesday of last week, was up for examination before Wm. H. Harrison, J. P., to-day, and after examination of the lady and two or three other witnesses, was committed to jail without bail to stand his trial for rape and arson at the next term of the Superior Court.

The evidence given was clear and conclusive of guilt, and showed that the conduct of the accused was of the most brutal and diabolical character. We took it down, but it is of too revolting a nature for publication. We withhold the name of the victim of this brute in human shape, for reasons that will be readily understood.

No better evidence of the law abiding disposition of our people could be given to the world, than the fact that the perpetrator of such an outrage upon a highly respectable lady, should escape the violence of enraged relatives and neighbors, and be permitted to take his trial for his crimes by regular course of law.

Enough of It.—Returning from dinner to day, we met an old colored man who stopped us and very politely inquired the way to the depot. We pointed him to the street he should go, with directions in regard to the turnings, but mentioned that we did not think there were any train going out at that time of day. "No, boss, I know dar aint, but I want to git to de depot and wait tel one dus go. I come up here and spent money 'nough on de Railroad to buy me a whole piece o' meat, an' I aint got nothin' 'tall for it; and I'm gwine back to Forrisville, I is, for I dun got 'nough on it."

We could not but inwardly censure that want of humanity that, for a mere pageant, can induce these people to spend their few hard earned dimes, and waste their time at this busy season, for what? Certainly for no good to them.

Fracas.—Just as we go to press we learn that a young man named Smith has been arrested and lodged in the Guard House for striking a colored youth on the head with a chair, at the house of Ann Skanes, in "the bottom." Both parties drinky.

A Broadside for Humbugs.

Incompetence and assurance generally go hand in hand, and of all the tribe of pretentious know-nothings with which society is afflicted, the unscientific "medicine men" a be attempt to tamper with the health of the community are the most dangerous and the most impudent.

So much by way of Text. Now for a special and particular application.

It appears that a mushroom growth of so called "Bitters" is springing up under different names in various localities, particularly in the Southern and Western States, which the venders have the hardihood to recommend to easy-going people upon whom they think they can impose, as a substitute for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, long recognized by every class as the purest and best medicated stimulant and invigorant the world affords.

The concoctions referred to being compound of worthless material, offer a larger margin for profit than that Celebrated Tonic, and hence the anxiety of dollar worshipping dealers to foist them upon the public in its place.

But "forewarned is forearmed," and all parties whom these distinguished (!) beings are endeavoring to coax and inveigle into substituting trash for a standard remedy, are hereby informed of the selfish and sordid motives which underlie the representations in question.

The great popularity and vast sales of Hostetter's Bitters cannot, of course, be seriously impaired by these "tricks of trade" but as the debilitated and suffering have a direct interest in the matter, it is only an act of common humanity to put them on their guard.

Other charges moderate.

The buildings and grounds are unsurpassed. There are 60 rooms in the main building, with a most commodious and elegant chapel.

Hacks always at Henderson, to take pupils to the College. No charge to pupil for back-hire.

The subscriber begs to return his thanks to the many friends of Kittrell's Springs Female College for the liberal patronage which gave to that Institution an unparalleled success. It is due to them that he should assign the following reasons for leaving that location.

1. He can cheapen education. The property at Kittrell's is too expensive to establish there a permanent school at low rates. The buildings are of wood, requiring constant repairs, more liable to fire, and erected originally as a summer resort.

2. The desire expressed by so many to have Kittrell's Springs again opened as a watering place.

3. The kind and almost irresistible overtures, made by the good citizens of Oxford, to come into their midst. Every appliance of the school at Kittrell's, including pianos, furniture, &c., has been moved by them free of all charge.

4. The wide-spread and justly deserved reputation of Oxford for health, refinement, and untiring zeal in behalf of education.

5. The unanimous action of the Board of Directors in placing the College in his charge for ten years.

6. The pupils in attendance at Kittrell's the past session, with scarcely an exception, have been entered for the next session at Oxford, many parents expressing a preference for that location. This fact is most gratifying, and he congratulates himself that his former patrons sustain him with so remarkable a unanimity. He expects, with the help of his former most efficient and accomplished Faculty (all of whom accompany him,) to build up in Oxford a permanent and first-class College for young ladies, one that shall be a joy to the State, and an ornament to the South.

COMPARATIVE COST OF LIFE INSURANCE, as exhibited by an insurance in the Widows' and Orphans' Benefit Life Insurance Company of New York, under their system of Tontine Dividends, and an insurance in any other Company, under its system of annual dividends. For illustration, suppose a person aged 37 years, insures in a company charging on a ten annual payment policy of $10,000, an annual premium of $536.70.

He would pay in 10 years,	$5,367.00
Less an average dividend of 40 per ct.	2,144.80
Making the nett cost of his insurance in 10 years,	$3,214.20

In the Widows' and Orphans' Benefit Life Insurance Company, his annual premium would be $549 10, and in 10 years he would pay $5491.00

Less Tontine Dividend in cash, at end of 10th year,	5,291.00
Making the nett cost, in W. & O. Life Insurance Co, in 10 years,	$199.29

Giving a clear saving in 10 years of $3,014 91, by insuring on the Tontine plan.

This plan of insurance is fully endorsed and recommended as better to the assured, and giving greater security to the Company and policy-holder, by the Hon. Wm. Barnes late supt. of the Insurance department of the State of New York, and by the leading Financiers of New York as well as by all competent insurance actuaries in the United States. The Great Family Medicine of the Age.

THIRTY YEARS

Have elapsed since the introduction of the Pain Killer to the public, and yet at the present time it is more popular and commands a larger sale than ever before. Its popularity is not confined to this country alone; all over the world its beneficial effects in curing the "ills that flesh is heir to," are acknowledged and appreciated, and as a PAIN KILLER its fame is limited to no country, sect nor race. It needs only to be known to be prized.

Thirty Year is certainly a long enough time to prove the efficacy of any medicine, and that the Pain Killer is deserving of all its proprietors claim for it, is amply proved by the unparalleled popularity it has attained. It is a sure and effective remedy. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25 cts, 50 cts, and $1.00 per Bottle. Directions accompany each bottle.

Unprecedented Success

Medal Awarded by the Paris Exposition, 1867.

The American Combination Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

The simplicity, ease and certainty with which this machine operates as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of Sewing, in Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work.

Plays it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention.

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch, or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparitively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at Mrs. Tompkins' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.

Instructions in the use of the machine will be given to all purchasers gratis.

THE EQUITABLE
HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (cash secured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than Thirteen Million Dollars.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" after they once begin to pay them at all; but they do not begin to pay until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals four hundred and Thirty six Dollars paid at the end of four years, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

Phalon's Vitalia

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 9th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following :

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers, in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important SAFEGUARD. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.
